Staying relevant today

The Institute of Internal Auditors India is pleased to announce the forthcoming 2016 IIA India Conference on 19-20th February, 2016 at The Grand, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi. The theme of the two day conference is New Skills for the Internal Auditor.

We are witnessing heightened expectations by all three stakeholders viz. the industry, the legislation and the environment which is to deliver the next level of internal auditing performance and that too immediately. Internal Auditors have no option but to transform their skills, on a real time basis, to to global standards. Assessing emerging risks, data analytics, cyber security, critical thinking, industry insights, modern techniques, global internal auditing standards, etc. will be amongst the topics discussed at the sessions which will be comprised of panels of industry & subject matter experts

EXPECTATION MANAGEMENT & THE WAY FORWARD

- through panel discussion of local & global professionals

To set the theme, the keynote speaker Richard Chambers, President & CEO, IIA Inc. would speak on Internal Auditing: Today's Opportunities – Tomorrow's Solutions Hal Garyn, Senior VP, IIA Inc., will cover recent changes to the International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF). The other sessions will be mainly panels comprising of national & global professionals discussing case studies and best practices. International delegates from Middle East, South East Asia, etc. are also expected.

TOPICS TO STAY RELEVANT

As internal auditors, we need to keep ourselves abreast of global internal auditing standards, international practices in Internal Auditing, local industry insights, and emerging new areas of risks. The technical sessions will be around the following areas

- ✓ Cyber security, forensics and fraud
- ✓ Data analytics, monitoring and predictability
- ✓ Digital world dynamics, e-commerce and start ups
- ✓ Emerging risks, their assessment & management
- ✓ Role in IFC of internal auditors and stakeholder expectations
- ✓ Stakeholder expectations from Internal Audit in the future

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

With the presence of international & national thought leaders in this conference, a senior profile of participants is expected. This includes a mix of senior executive management, Chief Internal Auditors, Chief Risk Officers, Compliance Officers, Security and loss prevention professionals, Governance, Risk and Internal Audit professionals across Industries, Public Sector, Government, Regulators, etc. We hope to make this a “not to be missed” event in Internal Audit.
